The League of Women Voters of Klamath Falls is hosting the Oregon Department of Justice Bias Training:

Where: SKYLAKES COMMUNITY HEALTH EDUCATION CENTER, Multipurpose Room 2200 N. Eldorado Ave. Klamath Falls, Oregon

When: November 15, 2023, 4:00 P.M.

Oregon is a safe place for everyone

Since the passage of SB 577 in 2019, the civil rights unit at the Oregon department of justice operates the nation's first statewide hate crime and bias incident response hotline, dedicated to supporting victims and witnesses targeted with hate or bias based on their protected status (such as race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, gender.

- The civil rights unit engages in community, government, and law enforcement outreach and training regarding civil rights issues affecting communities in the state of Oregon;
- Topics which will be discussed in this presentation will be the latest laws regarding hate crimes and bias incidents in the state, and what are examples of hate crimes and bias incidents;
- What is the difference between hate speech and free speech, and how can I respond to affirm community values when I witness or learn about bias or hate;
- What can I do about the escalation of hate, intimidation, extremism and the growth of racism and intolerance in our communities;
- What resources are available for victims and witnesses of discrimination and bias ;

Christmas Party and Birthday Bash

December 17 after Meeting for Worship

Carpooling from the meetinghouse to Joe, Leigh and Jay's home at 1865 Sunset Beach Rd in Klamath Falls -- We need to make the cars as full as legally possible because there is limited parking and turn around space --- but plenty of room inside. Leigh will be turning 63, and we need a Christmas potluck -- so let's combine the festivities and have one fun time.
